

Race and Identity Matters Symposium

February 29th -March 1st

University of Connecticut, Storrs, CT 06269

Homer Babbidge Library

All presentations will take place in the Heritage Room, 4th floor of the Homer Babbidge Library

9:00 am - 10:00 am: Continental Breakfast

10:00 am - 10:15 am: Welcoming remarks

10:15 am - 10:45 am: Mary Louise Kete, University of Vermont

African-American construction of literary ethos in early and nineteenth-century America

10:45 am - 11:15 am: Trica Keaton, Dartmouth College

Afro/Black Paris: African Diaspora in the City of Light & Afro/Black France & Europe

11:15 am - 11:45am: Martha J. Cutter, University of Connecticut

Recovering lost histories of slavery and freedom

11:45 am – 12:15 pm: Carlos Gardeazábal Bravo, Colby College

Racial issues in human rights narratives from Latin America

12:30 pm - 1:30 pm: Lunch

1:30 pm - 2:00 pm: Zenovia Toloudi, Dartmouth College

Home and Migration, Public Space, Art and Architecture

2:00 pm - 2:30 pm: Jay Cephas, Northeastern University

Historical role of race in urban data analysis (late C19th & early C20th urban sociology)

2:30 pm - 3:00 pm: Aria Holliday, University of New Hampshire

Black women's history/Black girlhood studies

3:00 pm - 3:30 pm: Break

3:30 pm - 4:00 pm: Christine Mok, University of Rhode Island

Asian American performance

4:00 pm - 4:30 pm: Emma Amador, University of Connecticut

Latinx Studies & Puerto Rican Studies

6:00 pm: Dinner at Geno's Grille, 9 Dog Lane, Storrs, CT 06269

(2-minute walk from University)